

1. Merge function joins tables side by side, append function joins tables to bottom of first table
2. By split function
3. The process of transforming rows into columns, effectively rotating the data to create a more summarized and easily interpretable view
4. BY canceling the task
5. Duplicate creates an independent copy of a query, while Reference creates a new query that is linked to the original
- 6.